REMARKS

Claims 38-44, 50 and 51 are canceled without prejudice. Claim 45 is amended. Claims 45-49 remain in the application.

Allowable Claims

The Office has objected to claims 45-49 as being dependent on a rejected base claim, but otherwise allowable if rewritten in independent form. Applicant has amended the claims to cancel, without prejudice, the rejected claims, and to place the allowable subject matter in condition for allowance. This is in no way to be construed as an agreement as to the propriety of the rejections. Rather, Applicant reserves its right to file additional continuation applications to further pursue subject matter that it believes it is due.

Respectfully Submitted,
